

Aurore Dudka

LEARNING AND TEACHING

1. SUMMARY

After completing a Master's degree in finance at the Burgundy School of Business, I chose to pursue an academic career in economics. I am a certified teacher in economics and sociology. I am currently pursuing a PhD about eco-innovation, as well as a research project regarding the inclusion of minority children.

2. LANGUAGES

ENGLISH
GERMAN
ITALIAN
FRENCH

3. SKILLS

LEADERSHIP
WRITING
COMMUNICATION
TEACHING

3. EDUCATION

2017: Formation logiciel LOGIT and Access

2013 : CAPES Externe de Sciences Economiques et Sociales (French professoral examination).

2007-2010 : Master in management ESC Dijon-Finance and Accounting- Thesis : Quality management (17/20) -Erasmus in Germany.

2005-2007 : Classe préparatoire aux grandes écoles in Lycée Henri Poincaré à Nancy (54) – Specialization in Economy and History.

4. PUBLICATIONS AND INTERVENTIONS

Briser les stéréotypes pour une école plus juste in Revue Appren-tissages, November 2017.

Creation and animation of the file: Inclusive education for the Roms minority, in Revue Appren-tissages, November 2017 with Alain Reyniers, Zoé Ferretti, Alexian Santino Spinelli, Jean-Pierre Liégeois and Ahmed Ahkim.

Speaker for the summer school Research on Innovation «L'Innovation Agile : Quels défis pour les individus, les organisations et les territoires ?», Nancy- August 2017.

Speaker for Pestalozzi seminary-Council of Europe, Lyon 2017.

Speaker in seminary Gothics-BETA Lorraine, 2017.

The school system in Romania, in Les Cahiers Pédagogiques, September 2016.

5. PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Doctoral Student in Economy of Innovation-BETA Lorraine, 2016

- Technological and social innovation : the case of energy transition.
Director : Paul Muller, Maître de conférences HDR - Associate professor-Bureau d'Economie Théorique et Appliquée (BETA, UMR CNRS 7522) -Université de Lorraine.

Collaborator for Appren-tissages : pedagogique review created by Gaël Bournonville and Phillipe Meirieu, 2016.

Economics and sociologic teacher-Lyon (69), 2013-2017.